

Homeless Rent Supplements

An additional 750 rent supplement units will be available to assist the homeless to live affordably in the private rental market. Given that Aboriginal people represent one-third of the homeless population, up to 250 rent supplements will assist this group.

► Related successes over the past year

Over 300 homeless individuals were assisted through a rent supplement pilot program in communities with limited appropriate social housing.