DECLARATION OF INCOME AND ASSETS (DIA)

PART III: AGREEMENT (continued):

This DIA must be signed by the tenant(s) and all occupants aged 19 years or over living at the rental unit.

I/We understand that:

- It is my/our responsibility to promptly provide, or cause to be provided, all information and documentation that is reasonably requested by BC Housing to determine the applicable rent, or for audit purposes. This may include additional documents requested by BC Housing to verify total household income and assets.
- If I/we fail to disclose or misrepresent any information, such failure or misrepresentation may result in BC Housing ending my/our right to occupy the rental unit as per section 49.1 of the Residential Tenancy Act upon providing a minimum of 60 days notice.
- If misrepresentation or failure to disclose information results in an underpayment of rent, I/we will be responsible to repay all moneys representing the difference between what I/we paid as rent as a result of the misrepresentation or failure to disclose information as requested and the amount I/we should have paid in rent under or in connection with the Residential Tenancy Agreement.
- The basis for the calculation of my rent is set out in the Residential Tenancy Agreement. A minimum rent amount is applied by BC Housing based on my household size and the age of all occupants in the rental unit. If I am in receipt of income assistance, the rent will be fixed at an amount determined from time to time by BC Housing based on household size and age of occupants.
- The declaration of income and assets by an occupant who is not listed as a tenant on the Residential Tenancy Agreement is intended only for the purposes of determining my/our eligibility for the subsidized rental unit and the calculation of the rent. The declaration of income and assets, or contribution towards the rent, by an occupant who is not listed as a tenant on the Residential Tenancy Agreement or on an approved List of Additional Tenants and Occupants will not be construed as creating a tenancy between BC Housing and that occupant.

I/We agree and consent to:

- BC Housing verifying all personal information required to enable BC Housing to carry out its rent calculation and audit functions.
- The BC Ministry responsible for the Employment and Assistance Act and the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act disclosing to BC Housing (if applicable), the status of my/our file, household composition and the effective dates of any payments for the purposes of verifying total household income and determining the applicable rent.
- BC Housing auditing the information provided in or with this DIA (and any previous DIA), and understand that non-compliance with the audit process may result in the loss of tenancy and/or recovery of any/all subsidy funds in addition to any other remedies available in law or equity.
- BC Housing collecting from me/us any underpayment of rent resulting from my/our misrepresentation and/or failure to disclose information as requested, and that any money owing pursuant to this DIA, a court order or Arbitrator's Order or otherwise may bear interest at the post judgment court order interest rate.

No failure or delay on the part of BC Housing in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.
