The Shelter Aid for Elderly Renters (SAFER) program helps make rents more affordable for BC seniors with low to moderate incomes. SAFER provides monthly cash payments to eligible BC residents who are age 60 or over and who pay rent for their homes.

Who is eligible?

You may be eligible for SAFER if you meet all of the following conditions:

1. You are age 60 or older.
2. You or your spouse (if applicable) have lived in British Columbia for the full 12 months immediately preceding your application.
3. You and your spouse (if applicable) are one of the following: Canadian citizen(s); or authorized to take up permanent residence in Canada; or Convention refugee(s).
4. You pay more than 30% of your gross (before tax) monthly household income towards the rent for your home (or for the cost of pad rental for a manufactured home (trailer) that you own and occupy).
5. Your gross (before tax) monthly household income does not exceed the maximum allowable income. Maximum income varies based on household size and location in the province.
6. You do not receive income assistance through the B.C. Employment and Assistance Act or the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act (excluding Medical Services only).

For more information on eligibility, please see the SAFER brochure (online at www.bchousing.org) or call the SAFER office at 604 433-2218 (or toll-free at 1-800 257-7756).

Benefit Effective Date:

The Benefit is effective the latter of:

- The first day of the month in which your application is received by our office; or
- The first day of the month in which you are deemed eligible for SAFER.

The Benefit is a non-taxable reimbursement for rent already paid, and is paid at the end of each month.
