

Neighbourhood Update

925 Braidwood and Ryan Road, Courtenay

Dear Neighbour,

We are writing to share that BC Housing has selected Connective to operate the purpose-built shelter and Lookout Housing and Health Society to operate the permanent supportive housing planned for 925 Braidwood and Ryan Road. These experienced non-profit operators will manage the buildings, maintain the properties, and provide support services to residents.

Meet the Operators Open House (In-Person)

We are inviting neighbours to meet representatives from both Connective and Lookout at an open house on Monday, December 8, 2025. Join us to get the latest updates about the shelter and housing developments and ask questions.

Date: Monday, December 8, 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Location: Glacier View Secondary School, 241 Beecher Place, Courtenay

Format: Drop in any time between 5:30 and 7:30 pm. View the latest project information on poster boards and chat with representatives from Connective, Lookout and BC Housing.

About the Operators

Connective is a non-profit social services organization with decades of experience supporting people across B.C. and the Yukon. Connective offers a range of holistic programs including housing, employment, outreach, justice and community services. Their goal is to create safe, healthy and inclusive communities for all. Learn more about Connective by visiting connective.ca.

Lookout Housing and Health Society is a non-profit organization that has been helping people for over 50 years. Every day, Lookout supports more than 6,000 people across B.C. Their housing and health programs aim to foster resilience, independence and community well-being. Learn more about Lookout by visiting lookoutsociety.ca.

Questions?

Get the latest information about these purpose-built shelter and permanent supportive housing developments by visiting letstalkhousingbc.ca/courtenay-925-braidwood-road.

We continue to welcome questions at any time to communityrelations@bchousing.org.

Kind regards,
BC Housing